Someone during the Hasmonean dynasty may have added Nineveh to expand stories of the Muslims during Babylonian Captivity. Wherever Prophet Tobit and his son Prophet Tobias were taken into Captivity in the Middle East, they were not taken into Captivity in Nineveh in Babylonia. The Assyrian exile was after Prophet Jonah preached in Nizwah in Southern Arabia when the city had prospered awhile before the Assyrian exile. The city where Prophet Tobit and Prophet Tobias were in was a different place from Nizwah in Southern Arabia.

1:21 Ahikar is an Arabian name.

3:17 there was a wicked demon named Asmodeus

4:12 Prophet Tobit told his son Prophet Tobias not to marry a foreign woman.

4:15 Prophet Tobit told his son Prophet Tobias to do anything to anyone that he would hate.

14:5 Prophet Tobit says that the people of Israel will be taken back to the land of Israel and will rebuild Sulaiman’s Temple, and this temple will not be better than Sulaiman’s Temple. This verse contradicts Haggai 2:9.

14:10 there is disagreement whether Tobit is the uncle of Ahikar. He could be a different Ahikar. We don’t know if Prophet Tobit and his son Prophet Tobias lived in Nineveh in Mesopotamia or Nizwah in Southern Arabia and Prophet Tobit instructed his son Prophet Tobias to leave Nineveh in Mesopotamia or Nizwah in Southern Arabia. It is more likely that Prophet Tobit and his son Prophet Tobias lived in Nizwah in Southern Arabia and Prophet Tobit 14 was translated incorrectly.

Sedrach tells God's only begotten son that he would not give his soul to God's only begotten son. God's only begotten son tells Sedrach that he was commanded to take his soul to Paradise. God's only begotten son calls God our father.

10:1-4 God tells Sedrach that his soul is removed from his mouth. This is noteworthy.

12:1-2 Christ told Sedrach that Paradise was open for him. We don’t know if this chapter is made up or not.

12:5-6 Sedrach asks God how many years it would take for a man’s sins to be forgiven if he were 100 or 80 years old. God said to Sedrach that if a man lives 100 or 80 years, he has three years to repent and his sins are forgiven.

13:1-6 Sedrach tells the Lord that three years is a long time. The Lord tells Sedrach that He would make it a year.

14:1 Sedrach spoke to the archangel Michael

16:3 God lowers his mercy from 40 to 20 days after speaking to Sedrach.

16:5 God took Sedrach into Paradise with all the saints.
